NEWSLETTER

November, 1990

Editor: Shirley Scharf

The regularly scheduled monthly meeting of the Staff Congress was called to order November 8, 1990 at 1:00p.m., Administrative Center 722.

SYNOPSIS OF STAFF CONGRESS MEETING:

PRESIDENTS REPORT:

The Northern Kentucky University capital budget plan and request reviewed by the office of Campus Planning with the executive committee of Staff Congress.

The analysis of the 1989-90 fund balance and 1990-91 revenue reserve was forwarded to the Staff Congress executive council for review.

STANDING COMMITTEES:

Benefits: At this time short term disability insurance does not seem affordable to the majority of employees. Administration is planning a full review of employee benefits in the Spring of 1991. Future needs and directions will be discussed at that time.

Constitution and Bylaws: Bylaw changes were approved.

Policies: The terminal vacation/annual leave policy was discussed and the committee still had questions on the grants and contracts issue.

UNIVERSITY WIDE COMMITTEES

Emergency Evacuation: Emergency response manuals were finalized and mailed to every employee. Training sessions in emergency response are scheduled for November 13-15.

Health Insurance Utilization: Prucare 10% rate increase was discussed.

CONGRATULATIONS
