JULY, 1991

The regularly scheduled monthly meeting of the Staff Congress was called to order July 11, 1991 at 1:00 p.m., University Center, 108.

SYNOPSIS OF STAFF CONGRESS MEETING:

PRESIDENTS REPORT:

We begin anew - a new President of staff Congress, a new Vice-president for Administration, and a new year with a lot to accomplish.

Our outgoing president, Sue Roth was honored with a lovely plaque denoting her service and praised by members for her dedication and for the strides she made on our behalf.

Committee assignments were made with those committees selecting chairs and co-chairs. A copy of those committees will be sent out soon. Members of Congress will be sent a constituency list.

DEATHS

Charles 'Zook' Leftin, Volunteer Assistant Coach with the NKU baseball program from 1985 to 1990.

Charles was 74. Jane Meier, Athletic Director, called him 'our biggest fan'. You could always count on his support behind the scenes. He was a visible and avid supporter of all the teams. He was a member of the NKU Gold Club Board of Directors. He was always there where he was very much needed. As stated in The Enquirer, 'Why not name the NKU baseball field for Charlie Leftin, a special man and special fan whose life exemplifies the best of what happens there each spring and summer'. He will be greatly missed by many.
