

Date: November 6, 1972

To: All Faculty

From: Jim Niewahner, Faculty Assembly Chairman

There will be a special meeting of the Faculty Assembly on Thursday, November 9, 1972. The agenda will be as follows:

(1) Consideration of motion made by Thad Lindsey to encourage & facilitate faculty members attendance at college sponsored events the general policy of the college shall be that all full time faculty wishing shall receive 2 complimentary admissions to those internally college sponsored events.

(2) Consideration of the following motion of the Academic Planning Committee:

The Academic Planning Committee recommends that the following statement be included in the faculty handbook, student handbook & college catalogue "Each department as a whole has the right to determine curriculum requirements. Students may petition individual rulings to the entire department and the decision of the department shall be final.

TIME: 12:10PM

PLACE: ROOMS 409 & 411

Faculty Assembly Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Jim Niewahner at 12:15 P.M. in rooms 409-411. Dr. Niewahner announced that all meetings and the agenda to be discussed of committees of the Assembly would be posted on the bulletin board of the Faculty Lounge. Any faculty member is invited to attend these meetings.

The tabled motion concerning complementary admissions was presented to the floor for discussion. Question was called and the motion defeated.

The following motion from the Academic Planning Committee was presented by Chairman Marge Cantrell:

It is recommended that the following statement be included in the Faculty Handbook, Student Handbook, and College Catalogue. "Each department as a whole has the right to determine curriculum requirements. Students may petition individual rulings to the entire department and the decision of the department will be final." Motion was seconded by Daryl Poole. Thad Lindsey called for a quorum and since one was not present, no further official action on business could be taken.

Discussion on the motion followed until the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Rosemary Stauss