[letter of J. G. Hickman to Henry Bruce Jr.]

Maysville [Kentucky] 6th Jany 1863 [January 6, 1863]

Mr H Bruce [Henry Bruce]

My Dear Sir.

I see, that 500000$ of new-prefered [preferred]-stock in the Bridge Co [Company] has been taken and that the completion of the Bridge seems pretty certain now.

It will be surely a good time to offer Mr Ranson's property for sale: and I have been thinking of your kind promise to help one to sell. Will you try, as far as you can without inconvenience, to find a purchaser for the residence or any portion of Mr Ranson's property in your city?

You will lay me under great obligations, if you will lend me your assistance in this matter of such vital importance to me & my sister's family.

My regards to Ms Bruce and your family.

Very truly yours.

J G Hickman.
