[Letter from Frederick Christy Sharon to Mary (May) Green, Oct. 1901?; envelope addressed to Miss Mary Bruce Gree, #3 Ocean Terrace, Lynn, Mass.; postmarked Kansas City, Mo., Oct 13 830am, Lynn, Mass. Oct 15 930 AM, 1901]

My precious one

Thare [There is] just a few minutes ago before going to the station to take my train and I am going to send you this little poem which so surely expresses my thoughts.

My angel when we are one there will be no happies [happy] people on Earth will there.

I will make you love me more every day if I can and I will simply worship you.

Oh Mary if I could only

tell you how my heart is filled with devoted love for you tonight. But you know about any way dont [don't] you dear.

Goodnight my only love, my Queen. May God protect and grant you and bring to me safely

Your own loving

Freddy [Frederick]
