

Theodore H. H. Harris Local History Research Papers
MS-020

ABSTRACT

The papers contain two volumes of meeting minutes (1953-1964) for the L.B. Fouse Civic League, Inc., an African American civic organization in Covington, Kentucky. They also contain historical research files, which include news clippings, photographs, research notes, manuscript drafts, and published articles, created by Harris during his research on local African American history for entries to the Encyclopedia of Northern Kentucky and articles for other local history publications. The papers also have records from civic organizations on which Harris served as a member including the Kentucky African American Heritage Commission and the Northern Kentucky African American Heritage Task Force as well as oral history interviews with Harris about his military service in Vietnam in the 1960s and 1970s and his research on the case of John Montjoy, an African American male executed in 1937 in Covington.

ADMINISTRATIVE/BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY

Theodore H. H. (Ted) Harris, member of the first graduating class (1973) of Northern Kentucky State College, is a historian and researcher from Covington, Kentucky who specializes in local and regional African American history. His mother, Easter Harris, was secretary for the L.B. Fouse Civic League, Inc. from 1957-1964. Harris attended Lincoln Grant Elementary School and William Grant High School in Covington. He served in the United States Navy from September 1962-1966 and the United States Navy Reserves from February 1971-April 1979. He has been published in several history publications including the Northern Kentucky Heritage and The Register of the Kentucky Historical Society. He contributed 65 entries to the Encyclopedia of Northern Kentucky. Harris was a member of the Kentucky African American Heritage Commission (1994-2004), the executive committee of the Kentucky Historical Society (2000-2004), the Kentucky Underground Railroad Advisory Council (1998-2000), and a founding member and secretary of the Northern Kentucky African American Heritage Task Force. He served on the board of the Linden Grove Cemetery (2012) and as auditor for Chapter 88, Vietnam Veterans of America.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Theodore H. H. Harris Local History Research Papers is organized into four series. Series I, L.B. Fouse Civic League, Inc. Records, contains two volumes of meeting minutes (1953-1964). The L.B. Fouse Civic League, founded in March 1953, was a significant African American civic organization in Covington, Kentucky whose leaders and members were active in the Civil Rights movement and in providing social services for the community. The meeting minutes document the league's membership, events, projects, and finances.

Series II, Historical Research Files, contains research files on various topics related to local African American history created by Harris in preparation for writing entries on these topics for the Encyclopedia of Northern Kentucky. A few folders contain research and articles written for the Register of the Kentucky Historical Society including extensive research about Isaac E. Black, a 19th century African American lawyer. Researchers will find subject files on African American organizations, businesses, churches, schools, and individuals. The files include news clippings, photographs (mostly reproductions), research notes, photocopies of vital and census records, programs, brochures, manuscript drafts, and published articles. Researchers may be particularly interested in the file on Alice Shimfessel as she was president of the L.B. Fouse Civic League, Inc. The research files are arranged alphabetically according to Harris' original scheme. Folder titles listed are Harris' original titles.

Series III, Historical Research, contains completed research papers by Harris.

Series IV, Personal Papers, contains an oral history interview with Harris conducted by Lois Hamill and Anne Ryckbost about his U.S Navy experience in Vietnam in the 1960s and an interview with Harris conducted by Katie Bramell about his research on the 1937 trial and execution of John Montjoy in Covington, Kentucky. The research file (Covington's Legal Lynchings) is located in Series I. The series also contains papers from his involvement with two history-related civic organizations. Subseries 1 includes materials from his tenure on the Kentucky African American Heritage Commission, which was a partnership with the Kentucky Heritage Council, the State Historic Preservation Office. It has reviews conducted by Harris on grant proposals made to the commission for African American history projects. Subseries 2, Northern Kentucky African American Heritage Task Force (NKAAHTF), has correspondence written by Harris as the task force's secretary; NKAAHTF quarterly newsletters from 1995-2004 (incomplete); and programs, newsletters, and guides from historic sites, programs, and conferences.
