[Letter from Mrs. Charles Wortham Jr. to Mary BG Sharon, 1932]

Thursday -

Dearest May –

I hardly know what to say to you, my dear – I am so deeply distressed over the death of your precious Mother. she was the greatest inspiration for all that was good, sweet and fine. My heart goes out to you – and “Ted” and Brucie full of love and sympathy. I know only too well, what the loss of a loving, devoted Mother means.

Nothing can ever take the place of such Mothers as your’s and mine. Only God, and time can heal such sorrows. But we never forget. Not for one day. I wish there was something I could say – or do- dear, to make it seem less hard. when you can, write to me about her. I loved her very much, and a great regret was, -always-

~~was~~ that I could not be with, - or see her more. I always hoped she would come to Richmond [Virginia] some fall, and bring you and penos [?] – and Florence. Lucy – Lord joins me in love and deep sympathy.

Always with deep affection,

Cousin Sara

I am with Lucy – Lord this ~~winter~~ fear [?].
