H. Bruce Esqr. [Henry Bruce, Esquire]

Dear Sir,

I have received your kind letter, offering me the hospitalities of your house, and I am glad to know that I shall meet a kinsman of my lamented friend E.M. Bruce [Eli M. Bruce].

I have been notified that the committee have made some arrangements with my stay in Kansas City [Missouri] and if they are imperative of course I shall to conform to them. In the meantime I have ordered my trunk to be sent to your house and will report myself. to you on my arrival

Believe [Believe] me

Very truly yours

Jefferson Davis
