Volume 23, Number 24

Student publication of Northern Kentucky University Highland Heights, Kv. 41099

Wednesday, April 6, 1994

Smokers' Rights By Bruce Gray Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) _ The General Assembly found time to shore up smokers' rights Friday as it worked to clear its slate before clear its slate before adjourning. The House and Senate passed a bill to require every public building in Kentucky that has non-smoking areas to also set aside an area to smoke.

A House and Senate conference committee also watered down a provision in the bill aimed at keeping minors from smoking. The bill says cigarette vending machines have to be in sight machines have to be in sight of employees at retail stores. The conference committee gave the Department of Agriculture enforcement powers over that provision. Rep. Anne Northup, D-Louisville, gaid that guarantees the law will not be enforced.

"It's now a bill to make sure."

"It's now a bill to make sure

"It's now a bill to make sure children ... can go purchase cigarettes," she said. "Please let's not be so silly. Let's not be so silly to give the enforcement of a health bill enforcement of a health bill to the agriculture department," Northup said. She backed other legislation this session that could have required retailers to sell tokens for cigarette vending machines. Tensions between Northup and several rural legislators over the bill boiled.

legislators over the bill boiled.
"If you would quit sticking your nose into everybody else's business, things would be all right. I think we should accept (the bill) and go home and shut up," said Rep. Richard Turner, R-Tompkinsville.

House members voted 75-12 for the bill. The Senate then voted 28-7 to send it on to Gov. Brereton Jones. If he signs it, the measure will take effect in mid-July.

More Property Taxes?

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) _ School boards in 25 districts could impose an additional 5 cents per $100 assessed valuation property tax under terms of a bill passed in the Senate Monday.

terms of a bill passed in the Senate Monday. The districts are those that have grown by 3 percent in attendance in the last five years and funds would have to go to school building projects. The additional tax would not be subject to local recall elections, but would also not be matched by state funds.

The bill passed 28-9, but must return to the House for it to consider a minor change made in the Senate.

it to consider a minor change made in the Senate.

The following districts would be eligible to raise the tax: Fayette County, Boone County, Hardin County, Kenton County Oldham County, Daviess County, Campbell County, Medicampbell County, Henderson County, Laurel County, Henderson County, Marshall County, Nelson County, Nelson County, Pulaski County, Marren County, Marchederson County, Marchederson County, Melson County, Barbourville, County, Medicalloway County, Merson County, Beechwood, Graves County and Laurel County.

In The News SGA's Race For Presidency Contested

By Amy Stephens

Students learn in political science courses that heaven to a political candidate is to run in an uncontested race. If that is true, the Student Government Association and its scalar science. tion candidates running for the top position are not happy camp-

For the first time in two years, the race for president is contested.

therace for president is contested. Last year, presidential candidate Nathan Smith ran unopposed. At press time, two students have thrown their hats into the politi-cal ring. The deadline to declare candidacy is Friday April 14. Both candidates, Jeffrey Carter and Paul Wingate, agree compe-tition is healthy in that it gives voters a choice. They disagree, of course, on for whom the choice should be. One candidate Carter has noney perience. The other, Wingate, has nearly four years of SGA experience. Both said their background of experience would set them apart from the other.

Paul Wingate

Senior
Pol. Sci. and Speech major Activites: SGA, student coordinator for the student body presidents, Norse Leadership Society, Phi Kappa Alpha presidents, Norse Leadership Society, Phi Kappa Alpha "I Know who to get in contact with to get things done." Carter, a senior journalism ma-jor/marketing minor, said his lack of experience translates into a lack of cynicism.

of experience translates into a lack of cynicism.
"SGA needs a new face – some-one who hasn't been pushed down by the system," he said.
Wingate, a senior political sci-ence and speech major, said his experience allows him to know who to get in contact with on campus to get things done.

"Experience makes all the difference," he said. "(Carter) will spend his entire year in a learning process instead of a doing process."

Cartersaid he wasaquick learner.
"I will catch on fast enough to make good things happen," he

If elected, Carter's main goal will be to increase student awareness of SGA

"I don't know what SCA does he said. "Other students don't know either. I think with my skills and abilities, I can take SGA to the next level where it needs to be."

Carter's goals:
•To reopen the closed door on fall break

Jeff Carter

Journalism major, Marketing Activities: Norse Leadership So ciety, Phi Beta Lambda, market-ing director of The Northerner"I think with my skills and abili-ties, I can take SGA to the next level, where it needs to be."

sports and activities.

•To reroute the energy spent on alumni events into attracting lec-turers and activities to campus. If elected, Wingate's main goal will be to pick up on issues that got started this year but didn't get ccomplished. It is critical to maintain the relations that were built up this year with the Northern Kentucky Leg-islative Caucus and Frankfort, he said. More visibility will net more proj-

Other goals:

• Reopen the closed door on open

faculty evaluations.

•Reopen the closed door on fall break

·Establish a winter commencement.

•Seek to get residential students and off-campus students more in volved in campus activities.

Fall Break Dropped With Mixed Feelings

By Amy Stephens News Editor

Students will have to plod through next semester again without a break b e f o r e Thanksgiving. The Student "As a policy, I like the idea of a fall break. It's Government how it's implemented Association's attempt to in-clude a fall break in next that's the problem." Sandra Easton semester's schedule

s c h e d u l e failed last week in a calendar committee vote. The vote was 6-5. The proposed fall break would have been scheduled for two days at either the end of the eighth week of the semester or the beginning of the ninth week. To make up the time lost during the break, the semester would have started on a Monday instead of the traditional Wednesday or Thursday. SGA President Nathan Smith proposed the break as a stress reliever for students.

"It would help with student burnout," he said. "Freshmen especially get burntout and need to catch up academi-cally."

University The Univer sity of Louis-ville and Mur-ray State Uni-versity have fall breaks, Smith said. However, logistical concerns won the day.

Associate Provost Sandra Easton,
who represented the provost's
officeand the Council of Deanson

the committee, said the summer sessions and the start of the se mester would be scheduled too losely together.
"It's already difficult to schedule, get people to teach and get students to take the second five weeks," she said. "The folks that teach and take the second five weeks would have only a week before the fall semester starts."

Some committee members were in the position of believing a fall break was needed but having to vote according to their constituency's wishes.

Biology Chair Jerry Warner, who represents the Council of Chairs, said he was for the break person-ally, as were many chairs, but the logistics made it impossible. "We need a break," Warner said. "But it's not October and people forget what that's like."

However, while the biology department could work its way around the break by scheduling labsduring the first week of school, other departments could not.

Joe Conger, theater chair and one Warner's constituents, said he was both for the break and against it. "As a policy, I like the idea of a fall break," Conger said. "It's how it's implemented that's the prob-lem. I'm opposed to (the time) being added to the beginning of the semester."

Many theater students take part in summer stock productions which do not end until after the

which do not end until after the semester begins.

"They miss a few days of school ast its," he said.

Although he would prefer the semester be extended into December, Congre said he understood it would be impractical for some students because they take on jobs during the Christmas break.

Rob-Schneider, management and marketing chair and another warner constituent, said the busi-

Warner constituent, said the business school couldn't afford the time lost because of several classes that meet one time a week.

"It would create a number of discontinuities in momentum." he said. "Just when a class starts something, it would have to wait two weeks to finish."

NKU Waits For Budget Decision

By Amy Stephens

With their lobbying effort over, NKU administrators can only sit and wait to find out whether capital funding for the university will remain in the state budget.

At issue for NKU is $700,000 Atissue for NKU is 5700,000 in land acquisition money for expansion and state authorization to raise initial funds for a new science building. The projects survived an austere slashing of capital projects last week in an effort to balance the budget. Administrators are waiting for Governor Brereton Jones

See Jones, Page 9

Fitness Is Feeling Great!

Vid Vidovich/The Northerne Roger Klein and alcohol prevention specialist Mary Wilfert draw names for a prize giveaway sponsored by Drug and Alcohol Prevntion Services. The drawing was was

Measure Supported By Professor Downed

Direct Initiative Not A Commonwealth Tradition, Local Representative Says

By John Bach

The Kentucky Senate Legislative Committee shot down Senate Bill 36 which proposed that Kentucky's citizens be able to petition issues onto the ballot for general elections. Recently, political science professor Michael Avey lobbied to get Senate Bill 36 out of committee and onto the Senate floor. "I think it should be up to the voters to decide when an issue voters to decide when an issue should be on the ballot," Avey

The bill needed five of nine votes it got three. The Chair of the Senate Commit-tee, Sen. Joe Meyer, D-Covington, voted against the bill because the voted against the bil because the direct initiatives are not a Commonwealth tradition, he said. "I personally have concerns about the initiative approach," Meyer said. "Kentucky has never adopted populous reforms. It has no recall and very limited referendum." Each chamber can only propose two constitutional amendments and there were more than 15 put forward in this General Assembly session, Meyer said.

session, Meyer said.

Avey said he expected a lot of work to get the bill through.

"You can't start in the middle of a session," he said. "If we are going to get this thing through, it will take two years of working until the new session."

News

Over My Dead Body!

NKU biology students study the human body by using cadavers to reinforce lessons learned in the classroom.

Page 4

Northern View

No Bones About It Movie Reviewer Dogs Martin Short's new movie "Clifford."

Page 7

Sports

Norse Softball Cleans Up The Norse swept a double header, 7-1 and 1-0 Saturday against Lincoln Memorial to improve to 6-18.

Page 5

Viewpoint

Established in 1970

Stacey Durbin Editor-in-Chief

Lee McGinley Executive Editor

Todd Nolan General Manager

Pat Moynahan Adviser

Editorial Policy: All unsigned editorials are the expressed opinion of the members of the Editorial Board. The Northerner's editorial pages are written for and by the students of Northern Kentucky University to provide a forum for discussion. Students may submit Letters to the Editor or guest columns during regular office hours or by mail. The Northerner reserves the right to edit an item for spelling, grammatical and libelous errors

Questioning Tradition

A local radio station has dubbed ESPN as the Easter Stealing Pin-head Network over the big to do with baseball's opening day - but ESPN is not the first to supposedly steal a holiday.

Would Greater Cincinnati residents have made such a big deal if any other baseball game had been played Easter Sunday? Since Easter can fall any time before or during baseball season, surely there have been many pitches thrown out on the holy day.

Like Reds owner Marge Schott, many on staff disagree with taking away a holy day, as she said in in the April 4 edition of The Cincinnati Enquirer. But how many people complained about the basketball games played during Easter Sunday? How many folks voice their dissatisfaction over the Christmas bowl games? Rarely does anyone complains in the papers when members of their family become mesmerized by the TV or head to the stadium to watch these games.

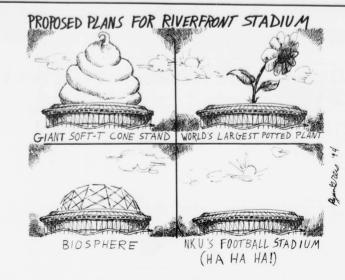

If you live in the Greater Cincinnati area, you know the fact that opening day was held on Easter is not the only complaint of Tri-Staters. The other gripe is that the game wasn't played in the afternoon, preceded by the tradition of the Finley Market Parade.

This season marked the parade's 75th year. Just like many area residents, we enjoy the tradition of taking part in the opening day festivities. What peaks our curiosity however is the idea of tradition. With the majority of the Tri-State being Christian, it seems ironic that most people complain more about breaking nearly 125 years of afternoon opening day games rather than sports overtaking nearly 2,000 years of Easter and Christmas celebrations

Correction

In the March 23 issue of The Northerner "The North Poll" ques In the March 23 issue of The Northerner "The North Poll" question dealing with the sex survey was misinterpreted by David Marshall. Marshall, a senior5peech Communicationmajor, said this was how the interpreted the question. One recent study said the average American has seven sexual partners in a lifetime. Are college students in general above or below average?

The Northerner apoligizes to Marshall for failure to clarify the curestion.

Diversity is More Than Race, Gender

Lecturers Inform, Enlighten Difficult Subject

Diversity seems to be a buzzword of the '90s.

Depending on your perspective and your field of experience, you may associate diversity in either a negative or positive manner.

It's strange that one word –

It's strange that one word diversity - can stir emotions in people that can't easily be dispelled.
Simply stated, Webster's Dictionary defines diversity as "difference or variety."
Human Resources Consultant Resources as on campus
last week talking about cultural diversity.
Straud's message was clear:

Straud's message was clear: Find a way to line up your values, beliefs and actions. What he basically was saying is walk your talk. It was a simple message, indeed indeed.

also attended the Leaderscope workshop entitled "Celebrating Our Differences" by Ernest Britton, NKU executive assistant to the president.

Britton emphasized the fact that true multiculturalism is the sharing of values and experiences experiences.

Both men wanted to emphasize diversity is not all about race and gender.

Diversity is about differences in age, socioeconomic status, geography, fields of study and sexual orientation, just to name a few.

The issue of stereotyping came up during the Leaderscope workshop.

Many people probably have nisconceptions about who is tereotyped.

Inscribe the state of the state and simplified their character or value system or behavior into a general preconceived category, you have just stereotyped that person.

I have been the victim of this and I know you have as well.

See, we've grouped diverse individuals into simple categories again. The solution to these From the Basement problems and issues isn't easy By Stacey Durbin problems and issues isn't easy nor is it readily accessible.

I like the approach Straud took with attempting to solve our diversity issues – be honest. If you can't be honest with yourself about how you feel about these issues, then you surely won't be honest when faced with real-life situations.

The first step however is to

The first step, however, is to educate yourself. I will solve problems within myself, within student organizations and within the society in which I form a part only when I learn how. Are you learning? Are we dreaming when we talk about solving diversity issues? Is it possible to have a perfect popporn world where perfect popcorn world where every kernel pops? Maybe. It could happen.

Stacey Durbin is a senior journalism major from Sturgis journalism major from Sturgis, Ky., and is Editor-In-Chief of The Northerner.

Getting In The Northerner

be printed. No letter will be printed without being verified by The Northerner staff prior publication.

Letters should not be more than 350 words long.
Guest Editorials
Guest Editorials must also be typed or neatly handwritten.
Editorials must also include a statement of affiliation to the university or oth community organization, including major or position. Also include a phone number for verification of facts. Guest editorials should not be more than 550 words long. The Northerner reserves the right to edit all items for grammar, incorrect spelling and libelous errors. The Northerner may refuse to publish material on legal, moral or ethical grounds.

Items may be sent to: The Northerner, UC209, Highland Heights, Ky. 41099.

1099. All items will be kept on permanent file in The Northerner offic

SGA Spotlight

Think about it - I come from Western Kentucky with a small, somewhat detectable southern accent. I like to run around either barefoot or in my stocking feet. I sometimes say icebox or Frigidaire instead of refrigerator. I say goofy things like "Hotter than blue blazes."

I say "Dear" or "Darlin" as a term of endearment for friends. From all of those characteristics, it's easy to simplify me as a country girl characteristics, it's easy to simplify me as a country girl. And 1 will be a country girl until you get to know me. I've not only been a victim of stereotyping, but I've been the perpetuator of stereotypes as well. Instead of getting to know someone, it's just easier to place them in cateopries.

What is your perception of Greek life? What is your perception of non-traditional students? What is your perception of athletes?

them in categories.

I hope you are having a good spring semester. It doesn't seem like a year ago when I was running for the presidential office. How time flies.

This year the Student Government Association will hold its elections April 20 and 21. I hope each of you will take theim to vote in this important election.

There are five executive council positions up for election. Those are president vice president vice presidents.

There are five executive council positions up for election. Those are president and student regent, executive vice president, vice president of external affairs, vice president of official records and vice president of public relations. There are at least 15 senate positions open for service. If any of you are interested in serving on SGA, please do not hesitate to call me at SGA, 572-5149.

This past Thursday, the university was given some bad news. The Kentucky General Assembly came out of conference committee and explained that there would be no new capital projects in the next biennial. This translates that NKU will not be receiving any new dollars to purchase land or to build a new natural science center. In the upcoming months, it will become important to see what will transcend in this effort.

I would like to congratulate Carla Chance, acting vice president for administration and Joe Wind, special assistant to the president, for a job well done.

a job well done

In Northern Pride,

Nathan Smith SGA President

Amy Stephens – News Editor
Leah Maines – Copy Editor
Beth Hehman – Production Assistant
Todd Gruenwald–Business Manager

Leftry A. Carter – Marketing Director

M. M. Hennessy – Columnist Kelly Chastain – Distribution

Staff Writers: Ernie Brooks, Amy Kriss, John Bach, Michael Bast, Willa Bush, Melanie Dawn Brooks, Francis Gonzalez, Donna Herald, Dave Hite, Mark Lorenz, Chris Mayhew, Cindy Sugarman, Richard Wiley, Jamie

McKinney
Production Staff: Rhonda Hall
Photographers: Jennifer Kohl
Advertising Staff: David Withrow

The Northerner is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press and the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association and is published on Wednesdays throughout the school year, with the exception of school holidays. The offices are located in University Center Suite 209. General office phone number is (606) 572-5260. Advertising office phone number is (606) 572-5262. Fax machine number is (606) 572-5266.

It is getting stricter all the time, and the

"Most of our

student's work is getting much

The North Poll

What would you like to change about your department?

Kevin Hedzik

Junior

Theatre

'A better radio studio."

The Art Department needs to be stricter with the portfolio

William Rebe Graphic Design

"More contemporary plays."

More open computer lab time

during the evening.

'More class offered in the daytime instead of the evenings.

Stefanie Wright Political Science

Not enough International business courses.

Lisa Parnitzke Simone Arantes Junior Sophomore Psychology Pre-MBA

The Faculty Poll

The faculty responds to the North Poll.

We are doing the very limited : funding."

David Thomson Acting Chair Communications Dept

Theatre Department

George Goedel

Psychology Depart-

Chair

Joe Conger

"I like having feedback. If this is true across the board we will try to do it."

I would like to make them more

available, but we

funding to provide adequate security

don't have the

evening program.

Barbara Houghton

Art Department

Political Science Dept 'Due to resource constraints we can only support a limited

MBA Program and Student Services

Deborah Moorhead Frank

The Soapbox

Handouts Deserve Better Quality

By Cindy Schneider Contributing Writer

In this day and age of laser In this day and age of laser quality print copies, where do our hand-outs in class come from? Maybe the Dark Ages? In most classes we receive purple papers that are messy, smelly and blurred to the point of making letters, and sometimes whole words, illegible. Most students would agree that we deserve better quality hand-outs, not just for the sake of pride, but for the enrichment of our learning experience at our learning experience at NKU.

Most copies given to students contain valuable information and assignments. This value could conceivably be questioned by the student when the copy given can barely be read.

Appearance often affects our opinion of things and this transfers to the hand-outs we receive in classes. These papers often hinder students from understanding the material or completing assignments. Several students have related experiences where class time was taken in deciphering the hand-out. One student had trouble doing an assignment listed on the paper because she could not read the words. The instructor gave her the credit because he could see the problems she had in reading the form. Even if the copies were always of high quality, it is still much easier to read black print than purple print from ditto machines. Better quality papers would Better quality papers would eliminate all of these problems. It would enable the students to understand the information and the instructors could save valuable class time with legible hand-outs.

could save valuable class time with legible hand-outs.

I realize that the ditto machine is more cost effective than using the copy machine, costing less than half. I also understand that this cost difference can be significantly reduced by advance preparation of the material. The printing shop requires at least 24 hours notice to produce the work, but the quality is excellent. It's true that sometimes instructors can run into problems and need a quick copy. However, if the choice is between purple dittos or black and white copies, make copies please. Instructors need to use

See Copies, page 10

SPRING RETREAT

Commuter Basic

CATHOLIC NEWMAN CENTER 512 John Hill Road

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 19 7:30 - 10:30 p.m. 15, 1994

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1994 9 a.m. - 5:30 p.m

$5.00 REGISTRATION FEE Call 781-3775 to sign up.

COMING SOON TO FLORENCE!

*********

$170-$400 / WEEK

- WAITSTAFF / HOST
- DISHWASHERS
- PREP COOKS
- CHAR-BROILERS
- BARTENDERS
- LINE COOKS

Applications are now being taken at: 7533 Mall Road Florence, Kentucky 41042 Corner of Mall Road Florence / Burlington Exit

***

News

Ouote of the Week

"... a scorched earth budget."

Sen. Walter Baker, R-Glascow, referring to the state budget after the Senate appropriations and revenue committee stripped it of all capital projects last week.

Letterman In The Library

Librarian Allen Ellis wrote a Top Ten list as a funny tribute to construction workers who have inhabited Steely Library for a year.

DPS REPORTS

Friday March 25

*8:25 a.m. A student fell and scraped her knee in the gravel parking lot behind the Albright Health Center.

Albright Health Center.

•4:12 p.m. While making her way around a Department of Public Safety car parked on the plaza near the University Center, a staff member's leg
skimmed the metal battery

jump box that protrudes from jump box that protrudes from the right bumper of the car. The lid of the box ripped her black jeans and cut her leg. 5the received six stitches at 5t. Elizabeth North hospital. *9:01 p.m. A student's silver Ford Escort was towed from the Norse half circle fire lane. The driver received a $15 citation.

Sunday March 27 •11:25 p.m. A staff member who was cited for driving through the stop sign at Lot N and Kenton Drive said he was applying common sense by not stopping because no cars were around.

Monday March 28

*10:12 a.m. An assistant professor got a harassing phone call in AHC. *12:38 p.m. The driver of a Pontiac Sunbird was driving through a parking space to leave Lot L when she hit a 1993 leave Lot L when she nita 1993.

Honda Civic driving east in the lot. The Pontiac had minor damage to the right front. The Honda had moderate damage to the left front.
*3308 p.m. A pair of glasses in a brown case were found on top of a car in Lot G and returned.

brown case were found on top of a car in Lot G and returned.

•6:14 p.m. After a part-time faculty member was nearly run down in the Nunn Drive crosswalk near Nunn Hall, she reported the incident and the car license plate number to DPS. DPS tracked the plate number to a student.

DPS tracked the plate number to a student.

*8:50 p.m. For the second time in two weeks, a DPS officer found many of the fire door alarms were turned off in Commonwealth Hall, E-wing. One fire door was propped open. Four windows on the ground floor were either open or unlocked. Two ground floor windows were open in Kentucky Hall, C-wing. All of the open or unlocked windows were in the hallways, stairwells or *9:15 p.m. A driver was cited for not having car insurance following a car accident on University Drive and Johns Hill Road.

Tuesday March 29

•3:40 p.m. A $24 parking decal
was stolen from a student's car in Lot G *5:56 p.m. A staff member smelled a natural gas odor outside the bursar's office in the Kenneth R. Lucas Administrative Center. No cause was found. •8:10 p.m. Five fire door alarms were turned off and nine ground level windows were unlocked in Commonwealth and Kentucky

• A brown Liz Claiborne purse

*A brown Liz Claiborne purse was found and returned.

*11:24 p.m. A ladies' Simon Kenton high school ring was found in the second floor restroom of the Business, Education and Psychology building. It was returned.

Wednesday March 30

•9:45 a.m. A student's car was towed from Lot P because the registration expired. The student had been warned repeatedly about the expiration. The tow fee was $85.

$85.
4:40 p.m. A member of the athletic department was in distress on the soccer field track. He had a skin puncture wound on his head the size of a pencil eraser. He was taken to St. Luke East hospital.
Thursday March 31
*9 p.m. The driver of a 1989
*9 p.m. The driver of a 1989

*9 p.m. The driver of a 1989 black Dodge was cited in Lot B for having expired license plates, no driver's license in his possession and no proof of registration or car insurance. The car was towed to the Rees Hardy Towing Inc. lot.

LOST & FOUND

*March 27, 12:45 a.m.: A pair of glasses were found on the fourth floor of Nunn Hall.

*March 29, 6:24 p.m. Keys on a .357 Magnum keyring were found on the bagel cart in Landrum Academic Center.

*March 31, 12:55 a.m. A dark blue purse with brown trim was found in BEP 230.

Biology Students' Learning Process At Times Smelly, Always Invaluable

Biology students who study human and animal cadavers in lab classes have to first get past the smell of the formaldehyde used to preserve the bodies. However, the the bodies. However, the lessons learned outweigh the formaldehyde odor. Many students who take the class know what they are getting into, said Ronda Gerard, a senior secondary education major.

Gerard, a senior secondary education major. The cadavers are used to reaffirm what the students learned from reading assignments, slides and discussion in class, said biology professor Raymond Richmond.

Students in labs do not have to dissect the cadavers, but they have to touch them.
"You can't just watch what other students are doing," Gerard said.

There have not been any incidents yet of students not being able to handle the sight of the cadavers, Richmond

Students get used to working around the cadavers afte awhile.

"You definitely have to have sense of humor though," erard said.

The formaldehyde odor can make you sick sometimes, said Andy Wilmhoff, a physical education major. After a while some students can't stand the smell.

"I would recommend to anybody taking a lab that you take it after all other classes that you have," he said. "You need to go right home and change your clothes."

The smell can stay with students after they leave the lab, said Jill Strange, a freshman nursing major.

"It's embedded in your nose,"

she said.

she said.

The human cadavers are on loan from the University of Kentucky Medical Center to NKU for one year, said Linda Hartig, laboratory supervisor for the biological sciences department.

When the cadavers are returned, they are either

cremated or returned to their families for burial, Hartig

The lab students also use dissected cats as a teaching

The cats come from NASCO, a medical supply company in Wisconsin, Hartig said.

Three to four cats are dissected by instructors or teaching assistants for the labs to use throughout the year.

Until a couple of years ago, up to 90 cats were used per year and groups of students would dissect them, Hartig said, but the volume became too expensive.

The cats are also studied for one year, and are then destroyed, Hartig said.

AND YOUR WHEELS ARE SOMETHING SPECIAL, TOO.

There's a Ford or Mercury Just Like You.. and Your Ford or Lincoln-Mercury Dealer Has a Graduation Present to Help Make it Your Own.. • $400 Cash Back or • a Special Finance Rate*

Personally speaking, what you drive says a lot about who you are. So why not say you're one of the most exciting, fun-loving, even sensible people going? In other words, why not say it with a sporty new Ford or Mercury?

Now's the perfect time to make a personal statement - because the 1994 Ford & Mercury College Graduate Purchase Program** gives you your choice of $400 cash back or a special finance rate* when you buy a new Ford or Mercury. Or lease your vehicle and get $400 cash back!

Plus, Ford Credit can offer qualified applicants pre-approved credit up to $18,000 or the MSRP, whichever is lower, which could mean no down pay ment on finance purchases. You may also defer purchase payments for 120 days in most states (excluding Michigan, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Washington, DC)

So take time out to see your Ford or Lincoln-Mercury dealer today and ask about the College Graduate Purchase Program. (It's a terrific way to show the world just how smart you really are!)

Fri. April 8: The Norse face Central State for a Doubleheader at 1 p.m.

Sports

Tom Embrey, Editor

Norse Split With Panthers

in the first game," Chesnut said. In the second game, we were trying to get our aggression back and concentrate on hitting."

NKU's scoring continued in the bottom of the fourthinning, when

NKU junior

NKU junior Jerome Robinson

singled to left

field. Robinson

Norse Star

Mickey Pardee

Baseball

Memorial on Saturday.

of the Week -

Williams, a freshman from Hilliard, Ohio

pitched a one-hit shutout against Lincoln

Williams allowed Lincoln Memorial only three baserunners and her win enabled the

Norse to sweep their first double header

Williams won her second game of the season. In her two wins combined she has allowed no runs and one hit.

By Ernie Brooks

The NKU baseball team split a doubleheader with visiting Indianapolis Friday by winning senior second baseman Brandon Chesnut delivered a 2-run double into the left center field gap scoring Chris Young and Chris Helfer. "As far as hitting, we were passive

"In the second game we were indianapois Friday by winning the second game of the twin bill by a score of 3-2.

T i m e 1 y hitting and solid pitching and solid pitching are two of the keys that helped propel the Norse to their sixth conference victory in eight tries.

NKU got off to a 2-0 lead when senior second baseman Brandon trying to get our aggression back and concentrate on -Brandon Chesnut moved to second on a sacrifice and to third on a wild pitch. Sophomore left fielder Chris Young then walked. With two outs, NKU attempted a double steal and Robinson scored on an errant throw to second by Indianapolis closed the gap to 3-lin the top of the fifth and creeped closer in the seventh.

Greyhound first baseman Ryan Gaynor hit a homerun to left center field to end the scoring. NKU starting pitcher Kenny McManus gave up six hits and struck out four in six and one-third innines.

struck out four in six and one-third innings.
"T've been struggling a little bit with asorcelbow," said McManus. "Fortunately, coach gave me the opportunity to pitch this game. In game one the Norse took a 2-I lead into the top of the seventh inning only to see the Greybounds scored liver runs on a treasure

double to hand NKU its second conference loss.

Afterwards NKU head coach Bill
Aker said he told his team to hang

"We didn't play bad and we didn't give the ballgame away," Aker said. "We just haven't been hitting the ball real well."

Pitchers Mop Up In Home Sweep

NKU pitchers yield five hits in fourteen innings against LMU

By Tom Embrey

NKUsoftball players Sabrina Tackett and Nickole Williams pitched NKU to its first double header sweep of the season last Saturday. Williams and Tackett allowed only five hits in the two games against Lincoln Memorial.

In the second game, the Norse offense managed five hits and one run but Williams and the defense made it stand up.

The Norse clung to a 1-0 lead and Williams carried a no-hitter into the final inning but it wasn't to be. The first batter singled back through the middle to spoil Williams' bid for a no-hiiter.

a no-initer.

A double play grounder wiped out the base runner and a slow hitter grounder to third ended the game.

The only run of the game scored in the botto Johnna Ellis hammered a one-out double into right center to start the rally. Williams reached base who she hit a line drive the third baseman couldn't handle. Freshman first baseman Dawn

Ellis to score and moving Williams to second. The Minto singled to center allowing

But with one out and a runner on third Williams turned the game over to her defense.
"I'm the type of pitcher who throws it in there and lets the fielders make the plan." Williams and the plan." Williams and the state of the s play," Williams said.

"I've got a lot of confidence in them."

confidence in them."
Right fielder Jennifer Freppon snared a shallow fly ball and made a strong throw to the plate to keep the runner from scoring.
The final out of the inning came on a fly out to left. came on a fly out to left. In game one, Tackett, a junior, allowed only four hits and benefited from an offensive explosion that tallied seven runs

The Norse pounded out nine hits and scored five runs in the third inning to secure the win. Down 7-I in the top of the seventh inning, the LMU loaded the bases on a walk and the bases on a walk and back-to-back infield singles with nobody out. Tackett squelched the rally when she induced a one-hopground ball back to the mound. She fired the ball home to force one

runner and catcher Karen

Wiesman threw on to first to complete the double play. "We made the plays when we had to make the plays," NKU coach Herb Bell said coach Herb Bell said.

Tom Embrey/The Normanior pitcher Sabrina Tackett allowed e run and fours hits in NKU's 7-1 win over LMU in Saturdays first game.

threatened to score again but sophomore left fielder Monica Verst lined into a double play to Verst linea une-end the inning.

in the top of of the sixth.

Attention Students: NKU Discount with Student ID Card GOOD AT COLD SPRING - NEXT TO K-MART 3720 ALEXANDRIA PIKE 41076 572-0800

WE'RE GIVING YOU A GREAT NEW WAY TO START YOUR DAY

GET A DELICIOUS CROISSAN'WICH®

FREE

WHEN YOU BUY HASH ROUND AND DRINK.

Promote Sponsored by EXCEL

ou are cordially invited to attend a company informational reception with

Fidelity Investments

Fidelity Investments is the largest privately held financial services organization in the country and a leader in the mutual funds industry. Our current assets under management exceed $225 billion. As a premier employer in the Greater Cincinnati/ Northern Kentucky area, Fidelity is currently looking for entry-level professionals in our Client Services, Account Management, and Capture Services divisions

If you are interested in Fidelity Investments for these or other opportunities, we want to meet you. Please bring your resum

> Wednesday, April 13, 1994 5:00 - 7:00 P.M. University Center

Contact your Career Planning and Placement office by Friday. April 8, 1994, to arrange for an on-campus interview during our Thursday, April 14 visit. Interview availability is limited.

GET A DELICIOUS CROISSAN WICH ® FREE

HASH ROUND AND DRINE our metter type visual remarkance of Law Countries Kills

T-Shirt Makes Abuse More Than Statistics

By Donna Herald Staff Writer

Sixty five T-shirts representing Sixty rive 1-sures representing 65 lives touched by rape, assault, discrimination, incest and mur-der hung in the NKU University Center Ballroom on March 30th. The shirts, brought to campus by The Clothesline Project, each rep-resent a North.

resent a Northern Kentucky area victim of violenceagainst women. The women them-selves, or in the case of murder, the victim's sur-viving family or friends, decorated the T-rated the Tshirts, saying

through paint,
permanent markers, embroidery,
or iron-ons, what they may not be able to vocalize physically.
"How could you?" a blue one read. "I was your baby girl."
In the color-coded suggested guidelines, a blue or green shirt indicates an incest or childhood sexual abuse survivor.

indicates an incest or childhood sexual abuse survivor.

Asabout 100 people filed through the spoke-shaped clothesline display, voices were low and tears glistened or careened freely down somber faces. Gingerly, outstretched fingers touched the fabric in comforting gestures.

Counselors intervened when needed

"It hit me hard." said freshman magnitude,"

"It's only the tip of the iceberg,"
"It's only the iceberg,"
"It's only the iceberg," Willacker, a freshman psychology major who has spoken to high school students about rape and sexual abuse for several years, said he settlis not a hehind it is immune to

"The idea behind it is so simple and so incredibly effective.'

Suellen Hugan

immune to the emo-tional im-pact of the display. The first time I saw it Iwas driven to tears," he said. "Each shirt stands for a person - a dam aged, bruised person who will never be the same. I don't think I will ever be able to see it and walk away unaffected."

The coordinator of the local Clothesline Project, Suellen

Hugan, first became aware of the national project which began in Cape Cod, Massachusetts and brought if back to the Northern Kentucky area.

"The idea behind it is so simple and is so incredibly effective, Hugan said. The shirts serve see eral purposes, from educating the public to the horrors perpetrated against women in our own com-munity, to reaching other victims,

she said.
"Women need to know that they are not alone," Hugan said.
"According to the FBI, 50 percent of marriages involve physical abuse. The March of Dimes says that violence is the no. 1 cause of birth defects.

birth detects.

"Sixty-three percent of boys under the age of 18 who are in prisons are there for murdering their mother's abuser. These are staggering statistics that show that no one is untouched by the violence against women."

lence against women."

When Hugan began the project inSeptember 1992, no funding was available, so she funded it out of her own pocket for awhile, she ner own pocket for awnile, she said.

"(Making a shirt) is the beginning of a long road of recovery," Hugan said. "It gives women a voice of their own, lets them be more than just a statistic."
They must break the silence, she said.

"In the past women went to the grave with these secrets. Putting it down on a shirt that you can see makes it more real. It isn't just a dirty feeling anymore."

The designs of the T-shirts vary as much as the individuals who created them, from the most simplistic five-inch weeping broken heart, to one with every inch cov-ered in wildly sprawling words of pain and anger, doodles and scratchings. Another shirt, its message neatly

See Line, Page 10

Vid Vidovich/The No

Nursing student Shelly Anne Deal sheds a tear while reading messages of abuse written on T-shirts in the Clothesline Project held last week in the ballroom.

The Northerner is turning over a new leaf for Fall!

The student-run paper is accepting applications for all positions for the 1994-95 academic year.

Editor-In-Chief General Manager Features Editor Layout Editor Marketing Director Ad Designer

Executive Editor News Editor Northern View Editor Photo Editor Business Manager Distribution Manager

Managing Editor Sports Editor Copy Editor Cartoonist Ad Office Manager Staff Writers, Ad

Meet the first of possibly many deadlines by dropping off applications by

April 13

at the Dean of Students' Office, University Center room 346.

The Northerner is located in the University room 209. Information: 572-5260; 572-5232; 572-5772.

Summer and Fall: March 21-April 15 Tuition billed.

Summer payment due May 10. Fall payment due July 29.

SUMMER OPEN REGISTRATION

Intersession: May 2 - May 13 First Five Weeks/Eight Weeks: May 2 - June 3 Six Weeks: May 2 - June 10 Second Five Weeks: May 2 - July 8 Payment due when you register.

FALL EARLY REGISTRATION

May 2 - July 8: Tuition billed. Payment due July 29. July 11 - August 12: Payment due when you register.

The Registrar Service Center is open Monday-Thursday 8:15 a.m. - 6:15 p.m., Friday 8:15 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. After May 10, evening payments may be made via the Bursar night depository located outside the Bursar's office. Registrar Service Center, Administrative Center 301, 572-5556.

'Clifford' A Dog; Movie, Kid Rotten

"Clifford"

Rated PG

Playing At Loews

Northerner Rating: 4

Martin Short parades across the movie screen like a nut for 90 min-utes in the Orion release "Clif-ford."

Short plays a 10-year-old boy in the title role. His parents fly him to his Uncle Martin's house in Los Angeles for a week's stay. Clifford has his little heart set on going to Dinosaur World. Heeven carries a little plastic dinosaur in his pocket named Steffen that he consults

w i t h throughout the movie. Unfortunately, this is the busi-est week of U n c 1 e

(Charles Grodin) life. He has to make city for new subway system, his girlfriend's parents are having a formal anniversary party and his boss (Dabney Coleman) is trying to steal his girlfriend (Mary Steenburgen).

Uncle Martin has to break his promise of taking Clifford to Dinosaur World.

To get Uncle Martin back for breaking his little heart, Clifford plays a few tricks on him.

Uncle Martin falls victim to all of Clifford's practical jokes. Such as subway system, his and phoning in a bomb threat to the police using Uncle Martin's voice.

No matter what kind of trouble Uncle Martin gets in with his girf-iriend, his boss or the police, he never loses his smile.

Charles Crodin has a great smile, but how about punishing the kid for misbehaving?

Actually misbehaving is not the

Actually misbehaving is not the word. Clifford is so rotten and mean-spirited, he belongs in a maximum security jail.

On second thought, whole cast in jail on charges of overacting. The characoverblown played in a cartoon-like manner.

This movie would be an excellent choice for children. The subject matter is light and Martin Short is at his There are a few laugh-out-loud moments of zany comedy to make it worthwhile for the adults.

This movie was reminiscent of every Martin and Lewis film ever made with Short replacing Jerry Lewis as the middle-aged guy playing a young kid.

Thankfully, Grodin did not have to belt out a few Dean Martin songs, but they will probably love
this one in France.

Egg-cellent!

Vid Vidovich/The Northerner Educational Supply and Soft Goods Buyer Jackie Baker played an Easter Duck last week in the bookstore, seen here giving out an Easter Egg to senior Lisa Wells

Radio Show For Fools

By Lee McGinley

They snub the dean of students, announce what's holding up construction at Steely Library and broadcast farce advertisements. "Saturday Night Live" did notshoot from NKU, rather WRFN broadcasted is "Left of Spring."

The whole idea originated when we wanted to do somewhen we wanted to do somewhe

when we wanted to do some thing during April Fools Day to be a take-off of the Rites of Spring," said Adam Campbell, who worked with Allen Singer, who worked with Allen Singer, the originator of their project. Campbell, WRFN's program director, said thinks no one be-lieved that the Left of Spring really happened during the 1 p.m. broadcast Friday April 1. "It's very apparent that the program's a parody . . The humor isat a high enough level

See Fools, Page 10

And you thought you could only afford macaroni and cheese.

Only $1,549.00

choose from the entire Macintosh* line or grab a PowerBook*, the most popular

Only $1,515.00.

ppleCD™ 300i Plus CD-ROM Drive, Macintosb* r Display, Apple* Extended Keyboard II and mot Only $2,543.00.

Right now, you could take home one of the country's best-selling personal notebook computer. They're all powerful, easy to use and more affordable than computers* for incredibly low monthly payments. By qualifying for the Apple Computer Loan, you can ever. It's that simple. So, stop by your Apple Campus Reseller for further information The Apple Computer Loan. You'll be amazed what you can buy on a tight college budget. Apple

For further information visit the NKU Bookstore in the University Center or call 572-5142

Norse Land

APR 6 1994

Classified Advertisements

For Your Information

Attention Pre-Med Students: Any student who is considering applying to medical school and who would be interested in joining Northern's first pre-med club, contact Tim @ 441-0405. First meeting is 12 p.m. Thursday And 18 First meeting is 12 p.m. Thursday, April 7, Room 108 University Center.

University Center. Women Softball Players Needed: for funfilled and exciting local championship coed team. If you are skilled, call Nick at 261-7818.

call Nick at 261-7818.

Egg Donos Needed: Healthy women 21-30 years old. Please help us, a couple experiencing infertillity. Please send your name, address, phone and fertillity history to our physician: IVF Director, Dept. RK 2125 Eleanor Place Cincinnati, OH 45219.

Wanted: Responsible roommate to share exp. (1/2 of $450 + utilities) of Ft Thomas Apt. 2 BR, 2BA, pool 10 min. from Cinti and NKU. Leave message 441-3064.

Do you hate wasting time typing papers? Need a professional looking resume? If you answer YES to either answer YES to either question, call Dennis Hardebeck at 341-5173. Help Wanted

Greeks and Clubs: Earn up to $50 - $250 for yourself plus up to $500 for your club! This fundraiser costs nothing and lasts one week. Call now and receive a free gift. 1-800-932-receive a free g...

0528 Ext. 65.

AA Cruise & Travel
Employment Guide. Earn big $$$$$ + travel the world free!
(Caribbean, Europe, Hawaii, Asia!) Hurry! Busy
scasons Asia!) Hurry! Busy spring/summer seasons approaching. Guaranteed success! Call (919)929-4398 ext.

HIRING - Earn up to s2,000+/month working on Cruise Ships or Land-Tour companies. World travel. Summer & Full-Ti-CRUISE SHIPS NOW HIRING - Earn up to summer & Full-Time employment available. No experience necessary. For more information call 1-206-634-0468 ext. C5537.

otockbroker with Merril Lynch seeking money motivated individual to set appointments. No experience necessary. Will train. Part-time hours. Will work around your schedule. Hourly pay and commission. Call Pete Kamp 344-0020. Stockbroker with Merril

Help Wanted

Bethesda Preventive Health Bethesda Preventive Health Systems is seeking certified, experienced step and low impact aerobics instructors. Classes are available early morning, lunch time, late afternoon and evenings at several locations within 15 minutes of campus. Call 891-1622 for more information.

ATTENTION STUDENTS:
Earn extra cash stuffing envelopes at home. All materials provided. Send SASE to Midwest Mailers P.O.
Box 395, Olathe, KS 66051.
Immediate response.

Classified Ad Rates

$3 for first 20 words, 10 cents each word after.

$1 to place a border around your ad.

Call 572-5232 or see Todd in UC 209 for more information.

WINEA Free Large, I Topping Pizzal Any Pizza, 2 Hoage MOBODY KNOWS Any Size. 2 Ch Any # of CROSSWORDS 2 Cot Toppings BETTER THAN 781-3311

ACROSS
1 Partially open 61 Jerry of golf
1 Partially open 62 Import
1 Partially open 62 Import
1 Partially open 63 Prey for Naty
10 Follow
10 Follow
11 Adata's
mistross
11 Partially open 11 Partially open
17 Architect of St.
Paul's, London
17 Architect of St.
Paul's, London
18 Paul's, London
19 Paul

Barrymore 3 Depot abbrs. 4 Underground

5 Liepaja's country 6 Tuners of orchestras 7 Lacunas 8 ____ Kabibble

Guevara U.S. poet-ditor: 1877

Paufs, Londo

Subjugates

1 Beginning

23 Teor Park, Li

25 Teor Park, Li

25 Teor Park, Li

26 Unlike Lady

Codwa

27 Codwa

28 Unlike Lady

Codwa

29 Soster of

30 Selitles

31 Epoch

32 Sister of

33 Sillies

44 Epoch

39 Supplement

40 Crow

41 Kind of claim

41 Kind of claim

41 Gaelic

51 "The ___,"
Homer paint
55 Sprite in English
folklore
58 Homophone
for yews
59 Prospero's servant
60 "So what is new?"

or v Groutar diamond 23 Tip off 24 Tun 19 25 Minnesota Viking Rashad 27 Judge students' tests 28 Terminate 29 Potto, e.g. 30 Deux-quatre go-between 31 He pined for Beatrice 33 "___ Onion," Lennon song 36 Titania's spouse 37 "When you square

48 Certain school, for short 49 Waterloo is

50 Second in

The Northerner Wants You! · Are You A Business Major?

Do You Have experience Selling Advertisements?

· Would You Like To Be A Part Of An Award-Winning Newspaper?

The Northerner Needs You!

For more information call 572-5260 or 572-5232

All-Campus

Variety Show

If you can sing, dance, act, juggle, tell jokes, lip sync or just want to have fun - the Activities Programming Board has just the deal for you!

April 18, 7 p.m., UC Theatre

For more information, to the The Office of Student Activities

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

Summer is the busy season in the mov-ing industry, and we need your help to handle the load. We will teach you to safely operate an 18-wheel rig and load household goods cargo - at no cost. We pay your room and board while you're in training. Once you receive your Commercial Driver's Li-

Take a break from the classroom, and make the most of your summer with North American Van Lines, We'll promise you an adventure you'll never northAmerican.

Have Any Suggestions? The Northerner wants to hear from You!

Send Letters to:

Suggestions c/o Tom Embrey Rm 209 University Center Highland Heights, Ky. 41099

The Home City Ice Co., Wilder, Kentucky is currently accepting application for summer positions.

Deliver drivers and production positions are available. Post-summer employment is also needed.

Contact Rick Wetterau or Mike Taylor at 441-1700 or Apply in person at 4 University Blvd. Wilder, Kentucky Monday thru Saturday 8a.m. - 5 p.m. E.E.O

LIFEGUARDS

Full & Part Time Positions Available. Excellent Working Conditions. Lifeguards, First Aid & C.P.R. Certifications Required. Experience A Plus, Not Necessary, Willing To Train.

> Apply in person at Personnel Office from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday

Drawbridge Estate I-75 at Buttermilk Pike Ft. Mitchell, KY

E.E.O

Norse Notes

AIDS Tests On Campus

Free HIV testing and counseling are available on a weekly basis in the Student Health Office in University Center room 300. For information, 572-5650.

Small Business Workshop

NKU Small Business Development Center presents "Marketing Strategies for Small Businesses" 6:30-9 p.m. April 13 in the Business-Education-Psychology room 461.

The workshop cover defining marketing, describing business in terms important to customers, matching the business to its best market opportunities, low-cost marketing strategies and a discussion of of marketing problems and solutions.

There's a $35 fee. Reservations are required; 572-6524.

Women, Grab Those Bats

Campus Recreation is taking entries for the April 20 women's softball tournament until Tuesday.
There will be a captains meeting at 4 p.m. April 13.
There's a$15 forfeitdeposit. To sign up, stop by the Albright Health Center room 129 or call 572-5197.

Garcia Play In Black Box

The theater department opens "The House of Bernada Alba," Thursday in the Black Box Theater.
Performances of the Federico Garcia play run at 8 p.m. through Saturday and at 3 p.m. Sunday. The production starts back up again at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday April 16 with a 3 p.m. show Sunday April 17.
For ticket information and prices, contact the Black Box Office at 572-5464.

Book Features Female Mentors

The Kentucky Academy of Science's "Kentucky Mentors: Women In Science, Mathematics and Engineering" is now available at the Women's Center, Business-Education-Psychology Building room 301.

How To Get Noted

Send Norse Notes ideas to The Northerner, in care of Lee McGinley, University Center room 209 or call 572-5260.

In addition to what the activity includes, let us know the day, time

It's A Keeper!

The Cincinnati Reds 1994 Home Schedule

April 4-6: St. Louis April 8-10: Philadelphia April 19-20: Pittsburgh April 22-24: Florida April 25-26: Chicago May 5-8: Houston May 17-19: Atlanta May 20-22: Los Angeles May 30-June1: Montreal June 3-5: New York June 6-12: Colorado lune 21-23: San Franci

July 7-10: Pittsburgh July 14-17: Chicago July 18-20: Piorida July 25-27: Houston Aug. 5-8: Atlanta Aug. 9-11: Los Angeles Aug. 19-21: St. Louis Aug. 22-24: Philadelphia Sept. 5: New York Sept. 9-11: Montreal Sept. 13-14: Colorado

Sept. 13-14: Colorado Sept. 24-26: San Francisco Sept. 28-29: San Diego

Cut out the 1994 Reds Baseball schedule and save it for the rest

College night is April 22 at 7:35 p.m. Tickets are $4 and are available in Student Activities in the University Center room 224. There's a limit of 25 tickets per group.

Iones

From Page 1

rove or veto the budget pre-

to approve or veto the budget pre-sented to him by the General Assembly at the end of its session late last week. At press time, Carla Chance, act-ing vice president for administra-tion, who represents NKU in Frankfort, said she suspected the land money was probably out of the budget, but that the science building authorization may still be included. The Assembly handed lones an The Assembly handed lone unbalanced budget, knocked $600 million out of whack because of the failure of the health care bill. The bill would have levied a 2 percent provider tax on hospitals and physicians, which would have funded Medicare reim-bursement. Jones is expected to veto the budget – which may not be a bad move for NKU.

move for NKU.
"If the governor vetoes the budget, then we may have another bite at the apple," Chance other bite at the special said.

If Jones does not approve the budget, the Assembly will go into a special session in May to readdress the contents of the budget.

"We'll try to do some damage control and work with the legislators in the interim," Chance said.

In the interim," Chance said.

In the meantime, if a parcel of land becomes available, administrators may go before the capital construction oversight committee and ask for an exception, Char

A new science building is critical to NKU, she said.
Chance likened the outmoded, outdated building, which was not intended to house laboratories, to an old car whose engine was barely hanging on. hanging on.
"You fix this and try and fix that with whatever resources you have on hand, but the time comes when you have to deal with it," she said.

Material Girl Cusses, Verbally Abuses 'Exhausted' Letterman

NEW YORK (AP) - Madonn aired her dirty linen on David Letterman's show, but you'd have to be a lip reader to catch everything she said.

everything she said.
The singer used four-letter words 13 times during a taping of "The Late Show With David Letterman" Thursday evening. She also threw in a couple of other expressions forbidden on television, including two "goddamns."
CBS deleted the offending audio before the show aired audio before the show aired "Coming up in the next half-hour, Mother Teresa is going to drop by," Letterman told the audience after she was gone.

audience after she was gone.
"Well, I see we've been canceled. There is no show tomorrow night," he joked.
Madonna was difficult from the outset, handing Letterman
a pair of her panties as he greeted heronstage. Hestuffed them in a desk drawer. Then she pouted and refused to participate in happy-talk chatterabout what's happening in her career

"Why are you so obsessed with my sex life?" Madonna demanded. She ordered Letterman to sniff her panties; he tried to turn the conv ersation Madonna has turned up at several New York Knicks games and reportedly dated basketball stars Charles Barkley and Rony Seikaly. After she was rumored to be in the market for an NBA team recently, Letterman joked, "I guess it was just a matter of time before she grew tired of picking up guys

ne at a time."

On Thursday, Madonna omplained: "All you do is talk about my sex life when I'm not on your show. ... You can't get through a show without talking about me or thinking about me."

about me or thinking was about me."

"You know, you really changed since I last was on the show," she told Letterman petulantly, puffing on a fat cigar. "You used to care. Money's made you soft. You the prophe now," ust kiss up to people now."

She refused to leave the set, forcing producers to bump – for a third time – prospective guest Jeff Stearns of guest Jeff St Shenandoah, Iowa

He was supposed to get his 15 minutes of fame for winning a competition as the best and fastest grocery bagger. After Madonna left, Letterr aid: "I tried to be nice to her

Apply Yourself

To find out what positions are available on The Northerner, see the advertisement on Page 6.

HOW AVAILABLE

A GREAT DEAL ON TOSHIBA LAPTOPS

TOSHIBA T-I600 LAPTOP, A 286 LAPTOP WITH THE FOLLOWING CHARACTERISTICS:

1 Meg Ram Memory 40 Meg Hard Drive 3.5" High Density Floppy 2400 Baud Modem

Carrying Case Batteries and Battery Charger Hewlett Packard Thinkjet Printer With All The Necessary Cables To Get Working Right Away.

COUNTY SQUARE SHOPPING CENTER MARTHA LAYNE COLLINS BLVD. 781-7276

Payment: We Accept VISA • Massisted • Olice VISA and Personal Checks.

CASHIER

Part Time Positions Available. Excellent Opportunity To Pick-up Extra Cash. Work Schedule As Follows:

Thursdays From 7 p.m. - 12:30 a.m. Every Other Saturday From 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. Every Other Sunday From 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

> Apply in person at Personnel Office from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday -Friday

Drawbridge Estate I-75 at Buttermilk Pike Ft. Mitchell, KY

F.F.O

INTRODUCING

COLOSSAL CINNAMON ROLLS

FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY

99¢ each

"Serving America's Finest Students" PTM

Copies

From Page 3

the print shop or make copies for class hand-outs and assignments for the sake of their students.

I would hesitate to submit ar assignment that looked like some of my hand-outs. I know that the appearance of my paper influences the grade I receive. I also know that my receive. I also know that my instructors prefer to receive correct, neat assignments. Spilled coffee, crossed out words, etc., detract from the professional appearance. This is also true of the ditto handout. The blurred, streaked appearance severely detracts from the readability. Consider, also, that the ditto machine is a virtual dinosaur in machine is a virtual dinosaur in our technological age. The harder to find repair personnel and parts. This means that not and parts. This means that not only are the copies being made in an obsolete manner, the equipment probably is in poor shape. I know that my daughter's grade school uses higher tech equipment for regular assignments as opposed to using the ditto machine, and the two-year college I previously attended used copied material instead of dittoed material. The ditto machine should become a thing of the past. The bottom line is the need for better copies to distribute to the students.

students

Cindy Schneider is in Paul Ellis's persuasive writing

Fools

From Page 7

that people will want to listen to this," Campbell said.

The show began with Dean Lamb, dean of students, saying he's taking the station off the air because of all the flack he has received from their on-air antics. Static filled the airwaves while Lamb spoke. Then Campbell broke in with the announcement that he was live in the University Center during the Left Of Spring festivities.
Singer, who set up the skit with

Lamb, said he mista kenly thought he would have to sell Lambon the

"I spoke with him like a half a

"I spoke with him like a half a minute while he read over the script and he said 'That sounds like fun," "Singer said. Campbell and Singer's favorite parody came later in the show, when Campbell supposedly interviewed a construction worker at Steely Library.

The skit plays on the stereotyze

Steely Library.
The skit plays on the stereotype that the only things construction workers do is take breaks and watch women walk past them.
Throughout the interview, the worker repeatedly refers to Campbell as "radio boy." Campbell and Singer produced the segment at their other place of employment. WRBI FM 103.9 in Batesville, Ind. They taped it at the WRBI studio because it had better sound effects.

"It sounded more realistic and believable (than) if we had done at "RFN," Campbell said.
The two worked on the entire project for nearly 12 hours.—stav.—

teners laugh.

"The fun aspect of it very much overrides the difficulty of putting it together." Campbell said.
They hope for the Left of Spring parody to become a tradition but are doubtful it will survive after their years at WRFN end, they said. The two worked on the entire project for nearly 12 hours – staying in the station until 4 a.m. the night before the broadcast.

"Each segment is recorded and then as a whole, it's put non amaster reel which is edited and polished to the professional broadcast quality," Campbell said.

He said he thinks the time devoted to the project is well seen tin said.

There weren't a lot of students in the University Center during the original broadcast, so WRFN's planning on replaying the show sometime this week, Campbell

"We think a lot of people would enjoy it given the chance to hear it from beginning to end," Campbell

Line

From Page 6

and concisely printed across the front, was edged around its hem in evenly constructed, "FURY - FURY Bauer, a junior journalism major, who could barely speak when she exited the exhibit. "There's women in that room crying, talking about their own shirt. There's a lot of emotion in that room." "It hits home," said Suzanne, an elementary education sophomore who admitted being victimized herself. "Especially the blue one that said, Mommy, where were you?" " Although the colors guide is not

Although the colors guide is not mandatory, the Clothesline suggests: yellow or beige for assault victims, red, pink or orange for victims of rape or sexual assault, purple or lavender for women attacked because of their sexual orientation and white for women who have died of violence.

All colors were represented at Wednesday's display including three white shirts.

A new color, gray, standing for

A new color, gray, standing for victims of sexual harassment will be officially introduced at a shirt making session in the near future. Two shirt making sessions will be brought to campus April 30 and May 7, Hugan said.

Hey You! Yeh You. Did You Know This Space Could Have Your Ad On It?

Advertise In The Northerner It Pays. $ $ $ $ $

voted to the project is well spent in airing a program that makes lis-

Barleycorn's Riverboats

Spend your summer working on the river! Hiring part time servers for charter river boat cruises. banquet experience a plus, but not necessary. Apply in person between 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at 848 Elm Street, Ludlow, Kentucky.

As part of the W. Frank Steely Library Expansion project, a diamond-shaped area in front of the library and adjacent to two landscape beds on the main pathway to Landrum Academic Center has been designed to accommodate dedicatory pavers. There will be built-in walls for seating adjacent to the paver area.

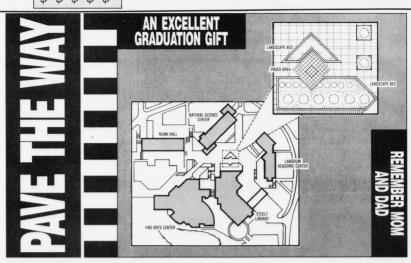

Funds from this project will be used to support campus beautification efforts.

This particular paver opportunity, at the low cost of $50, is now available to currently enrolled students and graduates of the class of 1994.

Inscribed pavers make great gifts (Christmas, Mother's Day, Father's Day, birthdays, commencements, anniversaries, weddings, etc.). Commemorate a person, a family, a special event, an organization or a business orders received by July 15 will be engraved laid by August, 1994. Those received afte 15 will be engraved on site at a later time

0 R		D	E		1			В		L	(may)	A	N	K
purchaser's name							Make check payable to: Northern Kentucky University Foundation
street address				phone number				Clip and send this form with payment to: Northern Kentucky University
paver(s) @ $50 each =				zip				Office of Development Nunn Drive Highland Heights, KY 41099
Please review information on order blank before mailing. Pavers will be inscribed exactly as indicated.								I						