

Haiku Sequence
Snowbank, Minnesota
June 2007

by James B. Goode

Loons ride mirror lake
Orange moon rises through Spruce
Lonely calls echo

Wind ripples the lake
Baby Loons ride mother's back
Comfort in feathers

Wind rocks young eagle
Sitting on dead Spruce snag
Eyes search water depths

Lure splashes water
Bass watch from rock crevices
Front door delivery

Moon over my head
Nature's great light dims slowly
Restfulness descends
