[Letter from Henry Bruce, Jr. to Mary (May) Bruce Green, April 1891]

Kansas City [Missouri] Apl 4 1891 [April 4, 1891]
Saturday

Miss Mary Bruce Green

My Dear Smiling Granddaughter.

It will be much easier for you to immagin [imagine], then it will be for me to tell you with pencil on this sheet. how much I admier [admire] and appreciate your beautiful, kind and interesting letter of the 29th Ult.

I am glad you received the Dictionary. And hope it may add to your Vocabulary. It makes me feel proud to know, that you missed me as well as your lovely and good Mother. Your Aunt Lillie had read your letter. and saw all you had to say about the strawberries + c. But She is incredulous about the extravagant manner you say, you are enjoying them. as she knowes [knows] knows you neve [never] had any great Fondness for delicases [delicacies]. [end of letter]
