MESSAGES FROM THE OFFICE SECRETARY...

The Staff Congress office is in need of interdepartmental envelopes, large and small. If you have an accumulation you would like to dispose of please contact Peg Goodrich, X 6400, and she will make arrangements to have them picked up and brought to the Faculty Senate/Staff Congress office in AC 105.

As you may know, this newsletter is sent to all Staff and Administrators. Due to budget restrictions, we do not send it to Faculty. However, we would like to encourage staff to share our news with the faculty in their departments either by posting it on your bulletin board or circulating it through your department.

The Orientation Program mentioned in the synopsis of the July Staff Congress meeting has been scheduled for July 25th, with presentations being made by Dr. Boothe, Dr. Scholes, Dr. Jorns, Cynthia Dickens, Peter Hollister, Dennis Taulbee, and Karen Ogburn. The administrators will be presenting their involvement with Staff Congress to the 1989-90 representatives on Staff Congress.

IN THE HOSPITAL

Darla Fahlbusch - Financial Aid, was in an automobile accident July 12. She is in critical condition at University Hospital and remains in a coma. Darla received over 70 pints of blood so far and we can only pray for her recovery. For those who wish to do more, the Hoxworth Blood Center will be setting up an emergency Mobile Unit at St. Luke Hospital on Friday July 28, from 1:00 - 7:00 p.m. Prospective donors must call 784-9721 for an appointment Monday -Thursday 12 noon - 6:30 p.m. Please tell them that you are calling in connection with Darla Fahlbusch at NKU.
