ASHISH K. VAIDYA

Dear Class of 2020,

Congratulations on reaching this important milestone!

This journey is never without its challenges, but the world changed as you were approaching your goal. You adapted to a new and dramatically different normal, taking a bigger role in your own learning. Reaching this milestone despite all the challenges of this pandemic proves that you have resilience, determination and grit. You will always be remembered for persevering through a global pandemic and finishing strong!

I hope your time at NKU has empowered you to gain new knowledge, learn new skills and expand your perspective. I hope you have developed lasting relationships with classmates, professors and staff members.

You are now among over 75,000 NKU alumni who are making a positive impact around the globe. As you head out into the world, please know the NKU community will always be here for you no matter where your career and personal journey takes you.

As you enter the next phase of your life, I ask that you continue to maintain a commitment to serving others less fortunate and the community writ large.

The world needs you now more than ever, and I know you will respond to the challenge with courage and compassion.

Congratulations and best wishes,

GREETINGS FROM SUE OTT ROWLANDS, PROVOST AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

SUE OTT
ROWLANDS

It is my pleasure to congratulate all of the graduates of August and December 2020 and to wish you the best of continued success. Your road to graduation was marked by many accomplishments and many surprises. I doubt any of you imagined how your final semester would be disrupted by a world-wide pandemic. But I hope that out of that unexpected challenge you found new strength and perseverance, and that you take rightful pride in making it through to the completion of your degree program.

At Northern Kentucky University, we pride ourselves in putting our students first while providing outstanding academic and social experiences. You are now a part of this university forever, and your presence has changed us—for the better. We couldn't be who we are as a community without your imprint, your energy and your contributions. We are proud of you, and we will miss you.

I trust your next adventure will be a great one, and I hope you will look back on your time at NKU with fondness and pride. Don't forget us. We will be here for you, and will be watching with pride as you accomplish your next great things. Take care. Be safe. And Go Norse!

No matter what it is, we hope you will continue to find ways to demonstrate your commitment to the university!

It is your persistence, hard work and commitment to education that has made this moment possible. The NKU alumni community looks forward to connecting with you and celebrating your personal accomplishments—not just upon your graduation, but as you go forward. ALMA MATER

Northern, let your vision lead us, hearts of women, men and youth.
Help us seek the higher virtues,
guide us to the greater truth.
Northern, Northern, alma mater,
may our lives enrich your name.
And in time leave us, your children,
better far than when we came.

Original lyrics and melody by Charles Wiley
Revised by Carolyn Hagner
Harmonization by Kurt Sander
