QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Nearly a dozen of the question/suggestion/complaint forms that were attached to the last newsletter have been filled out and returned to Staff Congress, and answers are being sought for the questioners. Forms are available from the Staff Congress office or from any representative.

Again, completed forms can be sent to the Staff Congress office, HP 359, with your name, or, for confidentiality, the completed form can be given to ANY Staff Congress representative, who will act as intermediary.

STAFF REMINDER

Anyone having any employment-related problem or concern is welcomed and encouraged to contact Gregg Schulte in Personnel Services (ext. 6383, Administrative Center 713) for counseling, advice, and/or discussion of employee rights and responsibilities. All phone calls and visits will be held in strict confidence, and no one should feel that such a visit in any way implies that a grievance has or will be initiated.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

The Distinguished Service Award and Staff/Faculty Picnic ad hoc committees have been appointed. The Distinguished Service Award committee reviews submissions and determines who will receive Distinguished Service awards at the Staff Awards luncheon in the fall. UNIVERSITY COLLEGE IDENTITY

Donna Gosney has expressed the concern that although there are many distinct offices located on the University College campus, much of the campus mail is addressed only "University College", creating much confusion and problems in sorting out mail. Please include a person's name on the envelope to better facilitate University College mailings being properly received.

SUNSHINE SEARCH

The "Sunshine List of NKU World Record Holders" is a contest being cosponsored by Personnel Services and the Campus Digest; the twenty categories of "world" record holders include tallest and shortest employee, longest commuting distance, longest marriage, most unusual pet, most unusual nickname, most famous relative, best late-to-work excuse, most unusual hobby, and longest employment at NKU.

Ten more categories are being solicited before the contest begins, so please send your suggestions to Lisa Boehne, Administrative Center 732. A nomination form will appear in the Campus Digest in the near future. The winners will receive certificates and will receive recognition in the Campus Digest.

ACADEMIC CONTACT

Cindy Dickens discussed the future of the Childcare Center at the March 21 Staff Congress meeting. Current plans include cutting back on the hours of service to half-day, from 7:00 am - 12:30 pm, on an academic year (fall and spring semesters, shut down during the summer). She and Norleen Pomerantz explained the Childcare Center's status as an auxillary enterprise, and the subsequent demands made upon it to pay rent and become self-supporting in order to remain in existence.

It is possible to expand the services to accomodate staff and faculty if a commitment can be made by enough people to demonstrate the need for such services.
