

STAFF CONGRESS BYLAWS

Article 1 - Representatives

Section 1 - Responsibility

Staff Congress Representatives are bound to keep themselves informed and to represent the majority interests of their division.

Section 2-Representation (Amended 04/2007)

- a) All staff employees who are eligible to vote and who have one or more years of continuous permanent service with Northern Kentucky University, as on the date of elections, are eligible to run for election to the Staff Congress.
- b) Eligible staff employees may nominate themselves or be nominated (with permission) by another staff employee. Employees may only be nominated to represent their Division or at- large, and by the established dates.
- c) Staff Congress Representatives shall be elected to represent the divisions according to the most current NKU organizational chart as approved by the Board of Regents, and determined by the Credentials & Elections Committee.
- d) Four At-Large Staff Congress Representatives will also be elected. These at-large Representatives will be elected for a full term. To allow contract personnel to be represented on Staff Congress, one At-Large representative shall be designated as a contract position. This representative will be elected for a 1 year term. If, at the close of nominations, the number of At-Large positions increases due to a vacancy from other divisions, then these representatives will be elected to serve a one year term.
- e) Representation by division shall be re-evaluated every 3 years during the budget process (November - January) as to the number of employees in the division to ensure accuracy in representation, beginning with 2003, using the following formulas: Total number of NKU staff/non-faculty divided by 30 (number of divisional seats) = ratio of employees per Staff Congress representative. Total number of employees in a division divided by the ratio = number of Staff Congress seats per division. Total divisional seats will not exceed 30.
- f) The total number of elected Staff Congress representatives will be a maximum of thirty-five.

Section 3 – Elections Process (Amended 12/2009)

- a) Staff Congress Elections shall be the responsibility of the Credentials and Elections Committee.
- b) Staff Congress Elections shall be conducted each year during the month of April.
- c) All Staff shall receive the announcement and explanation of the election process in March of each year.
- d) Nominations shall be accepted for a period of at least two full weeks. Nominations must be in by 4:30 p.m. of the final day.
- e) The Staff Congress Secretary and/or one member of the Credentials and Elections Committee shall be responsible for receiving all nominations in his or her office.
 1. Submission of nomination letter with signature is required and may be sent through campus mail or dropped off at the Staff Congress office.
 2. The nomination must include the nominee's full name and division on the official nomination form.
 3. A current list of all nominees and their division shall be posted on the Staff Congress Website.
- f) The Call for Nominations Letter, the Nomination Form, Voting Procedures and Category Openings Letter will be sent through Campus Mail to each qualified voter. This information will also be available on-line at the Staff Congress Elections Website or in the Staff Congress Office.
- g) Two full weeks after the close of nominations, the elections process will be held for at least a two- week period.
- h) In the two-week period between the close of nominations and the elections, a sample ballot will be available by request through the Staff C o n g r e s s Office.

- i) The Call for Nominations will be announced in Midweek and the Campus Digest.
- j) Voting may be done electronically via the Staff Congress Election Website (on-campus or off-campus). Absentee or paper ballot voting may be submitted to the Staff Congress Office or at another location at the discretion of the Credentials and Elections Committee.
- k) Eligible staff members who cannot vote during the designated times shall be allowed to vote by absentee ballot. Absentee ballot procedures will be included in the instruction packet mailed to each voter.
- l) All eligible staff members are permitted to vote on nominees from the entire ballot.

Section 4 - Term of Office

Each Staff Congress Representative should serve a two-year term with the following exception: when the president chooses to serve an additional year (with congress approval) and when a person serving the second year of term is elected as President-Elect, the term will be extended for at least one year. Terms of office begin on July 1 of each year.

Section 5 – Vacancies (Amended 6/2008; 6/2015)

- a) Vacancies occur when an elected Staff Congress representative terminates employment at Northern Kentucky University.
- b) Vacancies occur when an elected Staff Congress Representative submits a written resignation to the Staff Congress Executive Council.
- c) Attendance at Staff Congress meetings is important for effective representation of staff. An automatic vacancy occurs when, over the course of one July – June term, a Staff Congress representative has three consecutive unexcused absences at Staff Congress meetings, or a total of five absences.
The Staff Congress secretary will notify the member after three unexcused absences. A Staff Congress member may at that time appeal to the Staff Congress President and the Executive Team. Excused absences include those due to extreme circumstances, such as funeral leave or approved family medical leave, which would be validated with Human Resources. The Staff Congress Executive Team will be responsible for approving any exceptions. Missing meetings due to normal job duties are not considered an excused absence and should be considered by an individual prior to deciding to run for Staff Congress.
- d) Replacements when a vacancy occurs will be chosen by recommendation by the Staff Congress Executive Council with approval by the Staff Congress and will serve until the next Staff Congress general election. Replacements may be chosen from the staff at-large with regard to the Division.
- e) Staff Congress members who no longer represent the original area to which they were elected, due to change in employment area, will serve until the next Staff Congress general election.

Section 6 - Duties

- a) Staff Congress Representatives are expected to attend all meetings and to serve on at least one standing committee.
- b) Staff Congress Representatives are expected to be familiar with the minutes of the previous meeting.

Article II - Director of Personnel Services

The Director of Human Resources, by virtue of position, is the administrative liaison of Staff Congress.

Article III – Officers

Section 1 – Officers

The Staff Congress shall annually elect a President-Elect and Secretary/Treasurer.

The President-Elect will serve as President-Elect the first year, and as President the second year.

The following condition would constitute an exception: after the President's first term, he/she has the option to continue as President for a second year, with the approval of Congress. If the President chooses to continue and the Staff Congress approves, the President-Elect has the option to continue his/her term for a second year.

The President, President-Elect, Secretary/Treasurer and Parliamentarian will comprise the Executive Council.

Section 2 - Eligibility for Office - Who May Vote (Amended 05/2009)

All elected members of the Staff Congress are eligible for the offices of Secretary and Treasurer stated in Section 1 of this Article. The offices of President and President-elect shall require a minimum of 2 years and 1 year of Staff Congress service respectively. Only elected members of the Staff Congress may nominate or cast ballots in the election of any officer of the Staff Congress.

Section 3 - Nominating Committee

- a) The Nominating Committee will be comprised of the current President of Staff Congress, the Chair of the Credentials and Elections Committee, and the President-Elect. The President-Elect will serve as Chair of this committee.
 1. After the results of the general Staff Congress elections in May are posted, the nominating Committee will prepare a slate of nominees for each office (President-Elect and Secretary/Treasurer). Exception - See Article III, Section 1. This slate of nominees will be presented at the June meeting.
 2. All candidates will be expected to give a brief introduction of themselves at the June meeting.
- b)
 1. The Nominating Committee will send a slate of candidates for office to all Staff Congress representatives prior to the July meeting.
 2. Nominations from the floor will be accepted at the July meeting with the nominee presenting a brief introduction at the time of nomination.

Section 4 - Elections of Officers

- a) Elections to the offices stated in Section 1 of this Article shall be conducted at the July meeting of the Staff Congress.
- b) The Parliamentarian of the Staff Congress shall be the presiding officer for that portion of the meeting devoted to such elections. The parliamentarian shall appoint two members of the Staff Congress to serve as tellers in the counting of the votes cast in these elections. Any teller nominated for any office shall be ineligible to serve as a teller in the counting of the votes for the office to which he/she has been nominated, in which case the parliamentarian shall appoint a temporary teller to serve.
- c) An election to fill a vacancy in the office of either President Elect or Secretary/Treasurer of the Staff Congress shall be conducted at the next regular meeting after such vacancy occurs.
- d) Eligible staff members who cannot vote because of scheduled vacation during the election of officers should be allowed to vote by absentee ballot. Absentee ballot procedures should be determined and announced by the Credentials and Elections Committee.

Section 5 - Duties of the President

The duties and functions of the President of Staff Congress shall be:

- a) To preside at all meetings of the Staff Congress.
- b) To determine, in consultation with the Secretary/Treasurer of the Staff Congress, the agenda for all meetings of the Staff Congress.
- c) To issue calls for both regular and special meetings of the Staff Congress through the Secretary/Treasurer and in accordance with Sections 3 and 5 of Article IV of these Bylaws.
- d) To receive all matters directed to the Staff Congress and to refer these to Staff Congress or to one of its committees, as appropriate.
- e) To represent the Staff Congress in the university community and in the community at large.
- f) To appoint all ad hoc committees of the Staff Congress as set forth in Article VII of the bylaws and to appoint representatives to university wide committees.

- g) To enforce the Constitution and Bylaws of the Staff Congress.
- h) To exercise other duties and functions of a presiding officer as may be additionally specified by the Staff Congress.

Section 6 - Duties of the President-Elect

The duties of the President-Elect of the Staff Congress shall be:

- a) To preside at meetings of the Staff Congress in the absence of the president.
- b) To automatically become president when the presiding president's term of office expires. With exception as stated in Article III, Section 1.
- c) To become President of the Staff Congress in the event a vacancy occurs in the office of President of the Staff Congress and to notify members of the Staff Congress that he/she has become president.
- d) To represent the Staff Congress when appointed to do so either by the President of the Staff Congress or by the Staff Congress.
- e) To perform other duties as may be deemed necessary by the President of the Staff Congress.

Section 7 - Duties of the Secretary/Treasurer

The duties of the Secretary/Treasurer of the Staff Congress shall be:

- a) To keep accurate minutes of regular and special meetings of the Staff Congress.
- b) To distribute copies of the minutes of regular meetings to the membership of the Staff Congress preferably five working days prior to the next regular meeting of the Staff Congress.
- c) To distribute copies of the minutes of special meetings to the membership of the Staff Congress no later than three weeks following the special meeting of the Staff Congress.
- d) To keep a roll of the membership of the Staff Congress and an accurate record of each Representative's attendance at meetings of the Staff Congress.
- e) To assist the President in determining the agenda for meetings of the Staff Congress as set forth in Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws.
- f) To issue notices for all meetings of the Staff Congress as set forth in Section 3 of Article IV of these Bylaws.
- g) To preside at meetings of the Staff Congress in the absence of both the president and president-elect and to appoint a secretary pro-term to record the minutes of such meetings.
- h) To recommend to the Staff Congress, when necessary, a budget itemizing funds needed to sustain the operation of the Staff Congress.
- i) To perform other duties as may be deemed necessary by the President of the Staff Congress.

Section 8 - Appointment and Duties of the Parliamentarian

Within one week following the election of officers, the President of the Staff Congress shall appoint one member of the Staff Congress or a staff member at-large to serve as Parliamentarian of the Staff Congress.

The duties of the parliamentarian shall be:

- a) To assist the President in maintaining order and decorum at meetings of the Staff Congress.
- b) To interpret and apply Robert's Rules of Order (latest revision) when so requested by either the President of Staff Congress or by motion duly adopted by the Staff Congress.
- c) To serve as presiding officer of the Staff Congress only for that portion of the July meeting of Staff Congress during which officers of the Staff Congress are to be elected in accordance with Section 3 of this Article.
- d) To keep and maintain an accurate and up-to-date copy of the Constitution and Bylaws and all amendments made thereto and to transmit the same to his/her successor.
- e) To serve as Parliamentarian for a term of one year concurrent with the term of the President of the Staff Congress.

Article IV - Meetings

Section 1 - Time

The Staff Congress shall hold regular meetings as determined by the Executive Council.

Section 2 - Place

The Staff Congress shall hold its regular meetings in a location determined by the Executive Council.

Section 3 - Notice of Meetings

Written notice, stating the place, date, and hour of each meeting, shall be delivered to members of the Staff Congress not less than five working days before a regular meeting and not less than three working days before a special meeting.

Section 4 - Length of Regular Meetings

Staff Congress meetings shall not exceed two hours in length. The time shall be kept by the President-elect.

Section 5 - Agenda

The President of the Staff Congress, in consultation with the Secretary/Treasurer, shall determine the agenda for each meeting.

- a) All committees of the Staff Congress and individual members of the Staff Congress may submit agenda items to the Secretary/Treasurer not less than ten working days before a regular meeting.
- b) The Secretary/Treasurer of the Staff Congress shall deliver a copy of the agenda to each member not less than five working days before a regular meeting and not less than three working days before a special meeting.
- c) The order of the agenda shall be in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order (latest revision). Any conflict between this source and the Constitution and Bylaws of the Staff Congress shall be resolved in favor of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Staff Congress.

Section 6 - Special Meetings

A special meeting of the Staff Congress may be called at the discretion of the president and shall be called within ten working days of a written petition submitted to the president by twenty-five percent of the members or by a majority vote of those present during a meeting of the Staff Congress.

Section 7 - Open Meetings

Meetings of the Staff Congress shall be open to non-members. Visitors shall be seated separately from the representatives and will be recognized by the president only when prior arrangements have been made with the president.

Article V - Voting

Section 1 - Voting

Voting during each meeting of the Staff Congress shall be by a method determined by the president at the time of the vote. The total vote shall be determined by the president, who may appoint two representatives to assist in totaling the number of votes.

Section 2 - Roll Call Votes

A roll call vote may be called at the discretion of the president and shall be called upon request of a representative with concurrence of one-third of voting members present. A roll call vote shall be called automatically in case of a contested vote.

Section 3 - Quorum

Article VIII of the Constitution provides that a quorum shall be fifty-one percent of the current elected membership.

Section 4 - Debate

Debate or discussion shall be limited to twenty minutes per motion after said motion unless an extension of time is voted by two-thirds of voting members present. The time shall be kept by the president-elect.

Section 5 - Tie Votes

The president or presiding officer shall vote only in case of a tie vote.

Article VI - Standing Committees of the Staff Congress

Currently under revision
